

For Immediate Release:

The Cannon River Watershed Partnership received the resignation of Executive Director, Bradley Frazier effective immediately. Mr. Frazier informed CRWP that he was looking to explore new opportunities and other passions. The organization would like to thank Mr. Frazier for his service and dedication to clean water and wish him luck in his future endeavors. Members and partners are encouraged to contact CRWP Interim Executive Director, Kristi Pursell at the CRWP office with any further inquiry.

Statement from our Interim Executive Director, Kristi Pursell:

"I am honored to be named the Interim Executive Director at CRWP in this time of transition and I would personally like to thank Brad for giving his time and talent to better the mission and work of the Cannon River Watershed Partnership. The staff of CRWP send our well-wishes on his future adventures!"
