City of Northfield Announces Vacancies on City Advisory Boards and Commissions

Northfield, MN (October 7, 2019) —

The City of Northfield is seeking applicants to fill volunteer positions on several city advisory boards and commissions. At the end of December, the terms of several members of the city's boards and commissions will expire. For information and an application, please visit the City of Northfield's website boards and commissions page: www.ci.northfield.mn.us/98/Boards-Commissions.

More than 145 community members annually provide valuable leadership to the City through their participation on these groups and special study committees. Members participate in advisory, regulatory, governance and oversight activities in a wide variety of fields. The City Council is committed to appointing members who reflect and represent diverse segments of the community.

Completed board and commission applications may be turned in throughout the year; however, those wanting to be considered for the openings at the beginning of 2020 should submit an application no later than Friday, November 1, 2019. Please complete an online application located on the city's website: www.ci.northfield.mn.us/bcapplication.

Additional information and applications may be obtained in the Administration Office, City Hall, 801 Washington Street, Northfield, MN 55057 or the boards and commissions pages on the City of Northfield website: www.ci.northfield.mn.us/98/Boards-Commissions.
