City of Northfield seeks your input on Water Street using Polco

Residents can give input via app, website or paper

Northfield, MN (July 24, 2020) —

The City of Northfield is asking for input on permanently closing Water Street or seasonally closing Water Street. Participate in a short survey by August 6 using Polco, a public engagement platform. Residents can complete the survey in English or Spanish.

Residents can participate on Polco by downloading the Polco app for Android or iOS, or visiting the city's web page on Polco at polco.us/northfield. QR codes on City information boards allow easy access to the Polco website. Residents' individual information is never shared and cannot be accessed by the City.

Links to Polco can also be found on the city's website ci.northfield.mn.us/polco, and city's Facebook feed. English and Spanish paper surveys are available at the Northfield Public Library and Motor Vehicle Services at City Hall.

Community members can review survey results on the Polco app and through the city website: ci.northfield.mn.us/surveyresults
